d²eux

We consider reading a key element of growth for children. Strong stories, ambitious illustrations and the noble ideal of creating readers : this is what D'eux stands for.

As for our authors and our illustrators, we admire them so much that we adopted them! Together, we are a family. Together, we create essential, funny, moving or pretty serious books. Together, we make thought-provoking books, that demand rereading; books to give, books to lend.

Hoping that you too will adopt them. And us...
